

Ballyroan Parish Newsletter 19/20th February 2011

Lectio Divina (Reading the gospels to find the Good News) The Lectio Divina is a very old method of Scripture Reading in the Church. It has come to the fore again in our times in many parts of the world. This approach seeks to help incorporate the Sunday Gospel Reading into our day to day life in a practical and meaningful way. It is hoped to form a group in the parish who will practice this approach to the Sunday readings. A meeting to explain the method in more detail will be held on Tuesday March 1st at 7.30pm in the Ruah Pastoral Centre. A leaflet with more information is available at the back of the Church.

The Ballyroan Guides would like to express their thanks to all who supported their cake sale and coffee morning so generously. It was really appreciated and a great success.
