When we are frightened and confused by the storms and the rain, Lord, remind us of the time when you stilled the storm in the boat with the disciples. When we think that this weather will never end and that you have forgotten us, guide our eyes to see the snowdrops and the daffodils that appear regardless. In all the storms and difficulties of life, help us to realise that you are always near so that with the psalmist we too may say: “In the shadow of your wings I take refuge til the storms of destruction pass by”.
