

Distribution of the Gospel of St Luke

Early this year Archbishops of Dublin Drs. Martin and Neill launched a project to give every family in the Diocese a copy of St. Luke's Gospel to celebrate the Year of Evangelisation. Today we are distributing the Gospel. Leaving it on a table to be collected goes against the spirit of the Gospel being presented and received, so our Ministers of the Word will present you with the Gospel after you receive Holy Communion. They will be standing either side of the Eucharistic Ministers. Please take one for yourself and or family and perhaps a second one that you will give to someone you know who would be open to receiving the Good News of Jesus' love for all. May the Word continue to become flesh and live among us.

Corpus Christi Procession

Next Sunday is Corpus Christi and we will have the first Corpus Christi Procession in a few years. We hope to have a simple and prayerful procession after the 10.30 Mass, where we will process out the main door, left around the new Boulevard, around the new Pastoral Centre and back the Ann Devlin Park side and into the Church where there will be exposition until 11.45 am. Please invite any First Communion children you know to come in their First Communion clothes.

Children's Liturgy takes place during 12 Mass this weekend.

Next Friday is First Friday, if there is anyone you know who might like a visit please contact the Parish Office and we will include them on our visitation list.

Congratulations to Sancta Maria College and Colaiste Eanna who had their Graduation Masses this week. As they go forward into their futures may they have the benefit and blessings of the Holy Spirit. We have an opportunity to pray for them and wish them well as they prepare for and undertake their exams. We are placing a Book near Our Lady's Altar where you can put the names of any students you know who are doing exams, and light a candle for them and pray for them. I will place a perpetual candle there for the entire duration of the public exams asking that the light of the Holy Spirit and the protection of Our Lady, Seat of Wisdom, will be with them.
