EXPOSITION

Tuesday after the 10.00 Mass.

During the week, we celebrated the feasts of All Saints and All Souls and the 6th November is usually the feast of All the Saints of Ireland.

This year as the 6th falls on a Sunday, the Sunday liturgy takes precedence. However, the month of November is traditionally a time to remember all those who have gone before us, especially our loved ones who have touched our lives and who have passed on the Faith to us. May their memory shine like stars in the heavens and may their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace.

Forms for the Altar Lists for the dead are available at the back of the Church.

On Sunday next, 13th November, there will be a service of remembrance at 3.00 pm in St Teresa's Church Donore Avenue, for all those affected by the loss of a baby whether recently or long ago. This is being organised by the Miscarriage Association of Ireland.

Colaiste Eanna will have their Remembrance service at 11.45am

Tickets for the concert on November 28th in the Ruah Centre will be on sale from Tuesday at 10.30 in the Centre. This concert will feature Kathy Nugent and Seamus Booth.

The Third Age Social Circle have an outing to Glasnevin Cemetery and Museum on Monday 7th November. Meet at Cemetery gates at 11.45 am.

The Young Priests Society will have their monthly meeting on Wednesday 9th November at 7.30 in the Ruah Centre.

SERVE, an organisation working in partnership with the Redemptorist community to organise volunteers for Africa, Asia and South America, are having an information meeting on Tuesday 8th November at 7.00 pm in Irish Aid centre, O'Connell Street.

Like the bridesmaids in today's gospel, we never know the day nor the hour when the Lord will arrive. Are we ready for him when he calls us. We cannot bring our material possessions with us but we will be judged on how we have loved God and others during our life. Do we need to forgive others this week, do we need to right wrongs we have done to family or friends...? Never put off until tomorrow what we can do today!
