

Ballyroan Parish Newsletter for Sunday 28th November 2010

Congratulations and well done to our Choir, Celtic Choristers, and Soloists and Groupies for a fantastic evening on Friday, the music, atmosphere and sense of occasion was terrific and ALL the proceeds will be used for helping the homeless on Dublin's streets by our own Ballyroan Faith and Justice Youth Group.

Monday's of Advent

7.30-8.30pm Church of the Holy Spirit, Ballyroan. You are sincerely invited. Please come and experience Christ's healing love.

The Church will be Open, Warm and Welcoming.

If you haven't been to Confession for a long time, don't worry Fr. Brendan will guide you through.

To Parents of Young Children.

You brought your child for their First Confession maybe it's time to bring them again and come as a Family to receive God's forgiveness and the opportunity for a new beginning.

We offer our best wishes to Paddy & Patricia Doyle who have retired from business on Marian Road after 46 years' service (34 in the Post Office) to the people of Ballyroan. May they enjoy good health & happiness in their retirement.

Sunday 28th November

Sancta Maria are hosting a Coffee Morning and Collection in aid of the Kenya Project in the Ruah Pastoral Centre after all Masses on Sunday.

Mass Intentions for week

*Sat. 7pm Pat & Joe Moriarty (A), Sun 9am John Rafter RIP, 10.30am - Denis O'Leary (1stA), , Mon. 10am Nelly & Margaret Kelly (A), Tues. 10am Aidan Murphy(A), Wed. 10am Brendan Prone
RIP, Thursday 10am Jim & Edwin Carr(A), Saturday 10am Fr. Kevin Cox (A)*

Anniversaries: Thomas Vincent Jennings, Margaret Jackson.

