We remember all those who share their names with these saints.

We Mission Sunday welcome Bishop Eamonn Walsh to the parish to celebrate the 12.00 Mass today.

When we started to prepare for this special moment of thanksgiving, we realised that there are over thirty voluntary groups in the parish, men and women both young and old, all giving their time and talents to make Ballyroan a community of prayer, care, service and welcome. The Word of God is alive and active among us and we are proud that the parish also has an outreach, through parishioners and pupils in our schools, to peoples in other countries and continents: Kenya, Zambia, India, Nepal, Romania and Ethiopia to mention just a few. We also remember all the carers of our sick and elderly, many of whom come from other lands. Thanks to Fr Brendan, who encourages us all to participate so freely in the life of the parish.

We thank Michelle Daly for the wonderful concert on Monday last. It was truly amazing and enjoyed by all.

There will be a Finance meeting in the Ruah Centre on Monday 24th at 3.00.

There will be a meeting of the Third Age group on Monday also in the Ruah Centre at 10.30

The Sisters of St Peter Claver are having their annual Christmas Sale in aid of the Missions on Sunday 6th November at St Joseph's Parish Hall, Terenure. All are welcome to come and support their missionary activity.

The Do this in Memory of Me programme has its initial meeting this week on Wednesday 26th in the Ruah Centre at 8.00. It is very important that all parents of children, making their First Holy Communion in the parish this year, attend.

Let us take the words of the first reading to heart this week....let us look out for the needs of others, let us treat everyone justly. We must never forget that God hears the cries of the poor, He is the compassionate one who looks after them. He relies on us to be his hands, his words, his actions and his love in a World crying out for all of these things.....Take courage for He is with us.....
