World Day for Migrants and Refugees

Today, we are asked to remember Migrants and Refugees. The theme for today’s Prayer is: “Migrants and Refugees challenge us. The response of the Gospel is Mercy.” In his recent writing on MERCY, Pope Francis says: “...Let us open our eyes and see the misery of the world, the wounds of our brothers and sisters who are denied their dignity, and let us recognise that we are compelled to heed their cry for help. May we reach out to them and support them so that they can feel the warmth of our presence, our friendship. May their cry become our own and together may we break down the barriers and indifference that too often reign supreme and mask our hypocrisy and egoism.”
