In the first reading of today's Mass we are told that Paul and Barnabas put fresh heart into the disciples, encouraging them to persevere in the faith.

We are called to do the same both for ourselves and for others.

Lord, help us to refresh our faith and to come closer to you. May we find ways to show others the joy of following you. Maybe we can greet others with a smile, listen to those who are troubled, take time to share another's joy or success, visit the lonely and love one another as you love us.

WE ARE AN EASTER PEOPLE AND ALLELUIA IS OUR EASTER SONG.
