Some Reflections for Winter

"Laughter is the sun that drives winter from the human face". Victor Hugo

"May you have warm words on a cold evening, a full moon on a dark night, and the road downhill all the way to your door". Irish blessing.

"I prefer Winter and Autumn when you feel the bone structure of the landscape - the loneliness of it - the dead feeling of winter. Something waits beneath it - the whole story doesn't shout". Andrew Wyeth

Let us take some time to reflect on what winter means to us and perhaps write our own reflections. What does the winter landscape say to us about our faith?
