FATHER DANNY

On behalf of the parish of Ballyroan, as a faith community, we offer our sincere condolences to Father Danny and his family on the death of his sister, Margaret MacLennan, last week. Our prayers and support are with him and his family from across the ocean. Margaret, rest in peace. Father Peter

THANK YOU

-Thank you to all those who volunteered to clean up the sacristy. We had such an enthusiastic group who did a marvellous job. Well done.

-Thanks, too, to all those who decorated the Church for the Harvest Festival last weekend. It helped us all to pray and give thanks. When a community gets together GREAT THINGS can be done!

PARISH FUND RAISING CONCERT on Monday 12.05. Some tickets available at the door.

MASS CARDS are available in the Parish office. Donations for Masses as part of the Mass Association are €5 plus €1 for the card. Donations for single Masses for different intentions is at the discretion of the donor, cards are €1.

Masses for Anniversaries and other intentions can be booked through the Parish office.

NOVEMBER LIST FOR THE DEAD

November offering list and envelopes are available in the Church and parish office from this weekend. The Mass intentions are celebrated on the first Friday of every month and on special days throughout the year. Your offering for these masses goes towards local clergy as they celebrate the Masses. Envelopes to be left in the box in the Church, the collection baskets, the sacristy or the parish office.

WELCOME

We welcome all our children and young people and their families who join us for Mass. We are always very pleased to have you with us.

This weekend, we are happy to have those preparing for First Confession and Communion. May this be a very special year for you all.

Next weekend those preparing for Confirmation will be with us. In this, the parish of the Holy Spirit, we pray that the Spirit will be with you to guide and help you throughout the year.

NEWS

Are you aware that there is a Children's corner for all young people with colouring sheets and pencils available to either work on in church or at home.

Also, there is a book stall at the back of the Church where the Irish Catholic newspaper is on sale plus many other interesting books. There is a good collection of items for children and perhaps parents or grandparents could buy some as presents for Christmas!

FRIENDS OF SAINT LUKES

Those who organised the cake and coffee sale last weekend wish to thank all those who supported them. It was a great success and was enjoyed by all.

MISSION SUNDAY

19th October 2019

THIS SUNDAY

It is World Mission Sunday, a day when our entire Church family comes together for a real celebration of solidarity. Today we all join to pray for our brothers and sisters in missionary lands and to share what we can so that this vital work of the Church can continue. Every penny counts so your generosity is appreciated for the second collection which will replace the SHARE collection this week.

Lord,

We have never been so aware of "far-off" countries and conditions of war, famine and displacement. Help us to be true missionaries of heart, and like Saint Therese of Lisieux, may we pray for all those who suffer such hardships. When we see the faces of mothers and children, move us to reach out to them with generosity and love. Amen.

SUNDAY 27TH OCTOBER IS EMIGRATION SUNDAY

Members of our parish community who are living abroad will be remembered at our Masses this weekend. There will be a "Sacred Place" in the Church to help us to pray for them.

NOVEMBER 3RD

The annual Mass for those who have died during the year will take place at 12.00 noon. All families and parishioners are welcome to attend.
