BALLYROAN

EMIGRATION SUNDAY

26th October 2019

EMIGRATION SUNDAY

By the statue of Our Lady, you will find a map of the world and in front of this on a table there are pens, stick-on notes and flags. You are invited to write the name of your family member or friend who is living abroad and place it on the relevant place on the map. If you wish, you may light a candle and offer a prayer to Our Lady for all who are travelling or working abroad, They will be remembered at all Masses this weekend.

Lord,

We ask you to be with all our family and friends who are living and working abroad. Guide their paths and walk with them on their journey. Keep them safe from harm.

May they remain faithful to you and may they find all the support and happiness they hope for.

Amen

NOVEMBER LIST FOR THE DEAD

November offering list and envelopes are available in the Church and parish office from this weekend. The Mass intentions are celebrated on the first Friday of every month and on special days throughout the year. Your offering for these masses goes towards local clergy as they celebrate the Masses. Envelopes to be left in the box in the Church, the collection baskets, the sacristy or the parish office.

NEXT SUNDAY NOVEMBER 3RD

The annual Mass for those who have died during the year will take place at 12.00 noon.

All families and parishioners are welcome to attend.

During this month of November we remember all our loved ones who have died.

May they all rest in peace.

Aine Mullaly

We, as a faith community, extend our deepest condolences to our parish secretary, Aine Mullaly and her family, on the death of her dear mother, Una Dunne.

May she rest in peace.

WELCOME

We welcome all our children and young people and their families who join us for Mass. We are always very pleased to have you with us.

This weekend those preparing for Confirmation will be with us. In this, the parish of the Holy Spirit, we pray that the Spirit will be with you to guide and help you throughout the year.

MASSES FOR ALL SAINTS DAY

Vigil Mass (31st Oct): 7.00 pm

10.00 am November 1st.

All Souls' Day: 11.00 in Rathfarnham Church

BAPTISMS AND WEDDINGS

We are always delighted to receive requests for baptisms and weddings. All are welcome. Further information in the Parish office or on parish website. We welcome the following babies who were baptised recently:
Fiadh Grennan

Amelia Rose McCartin-Wan

VISIT OF ARCHBISHOP DIARMUID MARTIN

Archbishop Martin will visit the parish of Ballyroan next weekend when he will confer the Ministry of Lector on eight candidates for the Permanent Diaconate for the Dublin Diocese, including our parishioner, Frank Browne.

This ceremony will take place at the 7.00 pm Mass to which you are all invited.

MASS ATTENDANCE COUNT

Every year, we are asked by the diocese to have a number count of how many people attend Mass in the parish. This is done over a period of three weekends. This was carried out over the past three weeks and the results are as follows:

- 1. 780
- 2. 777
- 3. 1063

Thank you for your attendance and to those who compiled the figures.

Thank you to all who organised and worked to prepare for last Monday's concert which was enjoyed by everyone.

OUR PARISH GROUPING

The latest edition of the grouping parish magazine of Ballyroan, Rathfarnham and Churchtown is currently in production. Father Peter has joined the editorial team and gives the magazine his full support and the support of the parish. The magazine provides a place for the onward integration of the three parishes and a place to welcome, inform and evangelise the many different and cosmopolitan members of our faith and non-faith community. Thank you for your support and will keep you informed as more information becomes available. Father Peter.

CHARITIES ACT.

The charities governance code of 2017 requests that all charitable organisations publish an annual income and expenditure account every year. On the weekend of 9th and 10th of November, the parish finance committee hope to make public the data for 2018. Father Peter.
