25th September 2022

26th Week In Ordinary Time

Our Gospel reading this week is from St Luke.
Chapter 16:19-31

The focus is again on sharing wealth.

Using a story to make his point, Jesus in the written words of Luke, argues that we cannot live our lives being indifferent to the poor and suffering in our world.

Our gestures do not have to be dramatic, but we can do small things regularly, to make the lives of others a little better. In doing so we may experience the love of God in our lives, as we live out his gospel message of love.

We remember the words from last week. 'You cannot serve God and wealth.'

By Deacon Frank.

Ballyroan active retirement singers group are meeting in the Ruah Centre this Sunday 25th of September 2022 @7.15. Come one come all.

School Bag blessing for the coming year.

Lord , We thank you for your goodness to all our children. Be with these children throughout this school year. May your blessings be upon their schoolbags which the children carry to and from school each day. Watch over these children in their comings and goings. Keep them safe always, help them to be kind. Bless their learnings and also their play. Enfold them at all times in your love.

Through Jesus Christ our lord Amen.

Fr. Michael

Bereavements

We remember Ava O'Brien, Anne Gill, Jim Cullen and all those who recently passed away in our parish. Our thoughts and our prayers are with their loved ones and their families.

"Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them".

Anam Cara South Dublin, the organisation that supports bereaved parents, is holding its monthly Parent Evening for bereaved parents on Monday 10th October at 7:15pm in the Maldron Hotel, Whitestown Way, Tallaght. This event is free and open to all bereaved parents regardless of the age your child died, the circumstances of their death, or whether their death was recent or not.

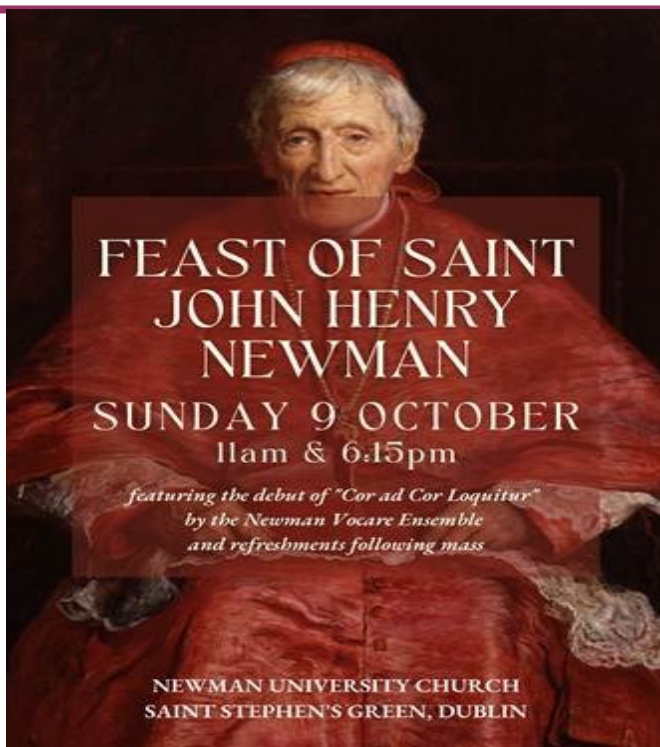

We'd be very grateful if you could help us to raise awareness of this free event for bereaved parents in your community. For more information, see anamcara.ie or call our Information Line on 01 4045378
