13th November 2022

33rd Week In Ordinary Time

Pilgrimage to the Holyland: A short summary.

On Sunday the 23rd Oct, at 4am, 37 intrepid travellers and their spiritual leader Fr. Martin Cosgrove set out on the long journey to Jerusalem. We had 4 amazing days in Jerusalem where we visited many holy places including Bethlehem, the Mount of Olives, The Garden of Gethsemane, The Church of all Nations, to name but a few. In the Church of all Nations we saw the lovely mosaic of the Good Shepherd (above the left hand side altar) given by Ireland as their contribution to this lovely Church. We had a prayerful and musical visit to the Church of St. Anne where we sang "I'll sing a hymn to Mary". This church is renowned for its amazing acoustics. 4 members of the group were from Ballyroan: Peter Kelly, Tom Hanley, Louise Monks and Ger Healy. The group all interacted well together. The high point of everyday was the celebration of the Mass by Fr. Martin in all the different locations. Then we left Jerusalem and headed for the Galilee, the main area of Christ's Public Ministry.

Our Galilee experience began with a lovely boat trip out onto the "Sea of Galilee" where we had Scripture readings and hymns, recalling Christ's time spent here, healing, working miracles etc. We followed with visits to the many places of Christ's life including Nazareth, Cana, Capernaum and many more.

Our last day of the pilgrimage was a visit to Magdala the birth place of Mary Magdalene where a beautiful new Church called the "Boat Church" has been built and the remains of synagogue from the time of Christ has been discovered. Our wonderful pilgrimage ended on the 31st Oct. and we set out on the long journey home. Special thanks were given to Fr. Martin for all his guidance, both spiritual and temporal, to our wonderful Christian Arab driver Eli, and our great guide Tanas, another Christian Arab. The memories of pilgrimage will be with each of us for a long time to come.

Our Gospel reading this week is from St Luke. Chapter 21:5-19.

This Gospel reading is coming towards the end of Luke's Gospel. In the next Chapter 22, we will be moving towards Jesus' passion. So, Luke reflecting on all that has happened over the previous 40/50 years, emphasises how Jesus was preparing his followers for the challenges that will come in a world that does not tolerate difference and choice to live outside the religious cultural norms. Has this relevance for us today? Jesus is encouraging all people to endure in faith no matter how challenging life will become.

What does the last line mean for you?

By your endurance you will gain your souls/(lives).

No matter what suffering and challenges that we may face in life, there is always hope, because like the early Christians we can experience the presence of the risen Jesus and the Spirit of a loving God who journeys with us. But we need to be open to this love by sharing our emotions honestly with God and listening to his silent voice speaking to our hearts in our time of prayer.
