

Church of the Holy Spirit Ballyroan

25th of June 2023

Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Times

Our Gospel reading is from Matthew Chapter. 10:26-33

Last week we read how Jesus called the 12 to assist him in building up the kingdom of God. But this week we read how he is encouraging all his disciples, telling them not be afraid because their loving 'Father' will be with them, no matter what trials they may face in living out their calling. This message is still relevant to all of us today, in a society that is more secular, and closed to the message of Jesus. We need to remain strong in faith and have the confidence to acknowledge our faith in Jesus and his radical message of love, that all lives matter and we must work for peace and forgiveness. What do the words mean for you? 'Everyone therefore who acknowledges me before others, I also will acknowledge before my Father in heaven.'
