The third person on the list will say the Prayers of the Faithful.

Lord, you met the disciples on the road to Emmaus and walked with them on their journey. How down-hearted they were when you arrived until you led them to a deeper belief in your risen presence.

Walk with us on our journey also. Help us to recognise you especially when times are difficult and may we always find comfort in your company.

Thank you for your gift of the Eucharist. May our hearts burn within us also in the Breaking of the Bread

Feastdays for the week.

Mon: Blessed Ignatius Rice,
Religious.
Sat: St. Comgall, abbot
