

Ballyroan Parish Newsletter Sunday 12th December 2010

Monday's of Advent

You are sincerely invited to come and experience Christ's healing love.

The Church will be Open, Warm and Welcoming.

If you haven't been to Confession for a long time, don't worry Fr. Brendan will guide you through.

To Parents of Young Children.

It might be nice to come as a family to receive God's forgiveness and the opportunity for a new beginning.

The Annual St. Vincent de Paul Collection replaces the Share collection at all Masses this weekend.

A very special thank you to all who came to our rescue to deliver Meals on Wheels during this very inclement weather. It is particularly appreciated by the recipients and those who prepare the meals.

Third Age Social Circle "55 Plus" meeting in Library (Christmas Party) on 13th December at 10.30am.

Do This in Memory the Parish based First Communion programme will take place during 12 Mass this weekend.

A special thanks to all those who returned the Tax Forms and a reminder to those who may have forgotten, please hand them into the Parish Office.

If anyone has a Church Radio at home that they are not using could you please drop it into the Parish Office and we have a lot of Parishioners asking for them.

PPC Meeting Tuesday 14th December at 8pm.

Wednesday 15th December Pastoral Centre Board of Management Meeting at 12 noon.

Two dates for your diary – Next Monday Week – 20th December we will have our Carol Service at 7.30 – with groups for our local schools, choir and congregational singing.

Church Clean Up – the day before the Carol Service – to get the Church ship shape for Christmas, especially after all the snow. We will meet in the Church after the 12 Mass – the more that come the quicker we will be.

“People wear designer clothes to show that they can afford to wear them. They should just wear a T-shirt with a photocopy of their most recent bank statement on it!”
