Dear Lord,

A member of our family is doing an examination. At this stressful time, may parents give support to their son or daughter and show them all the love and concern they need.

May sisters and brothers be quiet and considerate so that there is a peaceful environment for study.

May the students themselves keep calm, take sufficient rest, do their best and realise that everyone in the family have their best interests at heart and that God is at their side.

Spirit of the Living God fall afresh on each one at this time.
